Liber H. H. the distractions of this Province haue hitherto denyed me that satisfaction, So have they now left me doubly obligged to a sinceare and hearty demonstration of Joy and thankfulnes in as much as they have ended without bloud, and wth little shewe of force imediatly on sight of the enclosed from his Sacred Maty directed to yourselfe and Councill of Virginea. Of whose readines to Comply with his Maties pleasure both the Mutiners and my Selfe did so little doubt that they chose rather to submitt to mercy then to obliedge me by a resistance to Craue ayde from yow, and J deferred till now my request of assistance when neede shall require.

That tyme I hope is farr of, And therefore I shall preferr a Petition of another nature, and request that yow will please to lett me knowe what it is I can doe in these parts that may meritt the Style of Service to yow, either in your publick or privatt Capacity, that by putting your Commands in Execution J may satisfie myselfe that J haue complyed with my greatest Obligation as Governor of this Province the endevouring the welfare and plenty of it, Jt hath allwaies bene one of the strictest Iniunctions from my brother to his Gouernors here to maintaine a good Correspondence with yow, and am sorry to find that all their Neglects are left to be made good by me, but since it is soe J am the better satisfied that J have to doe with the person of greatest meritt and honnor that euer governed in Virginea who J hope will belieue that I am as J subscribe myselfe his from S<sup>t</sup> Maryes 14 Dec. faithfull & humble Seruant 1660 Philip Calvert
